MY PROFILE

Patrick Atis

From: Stratford/Lawnside

High School: Baptist Regional School (Haddon Heights)

College: University of Pennsylvania

Major: Psychology

Racial/Ethnic Description: Description: Black Haitian American

Personal Interests: Trying new recipes; Sleep; TV; Singing; Listening to new, fun, soothing music.

Professional Goals/Interests: Be a good doctor; Impact the medical community in mentorship, patient care and possibly innovation.

Other: Coming from a home where the unspoken parenting style was "teach by example", I am a person who enjoys being mentored and being a mentor. I currently tutor and mentor children at a local high school and would like to see more opportunities to do these activities at more schools in Newark. I am passionate about nurturing the next generation and creatively ensuring that they have what they need to surpass the advances of our generation.
